

DETECTIVE FINDS HAND IN HIS POCKET

Sent to Find Woman's Assailant
Gets Alleged Pickpocket and Another Man.

Detective O'Hara of the Fifth Street Station, was sent to Second Avenue and 12th Street at 2 A. M. to-day to quiet an uproar resulting from the hysteria of a woman who claimed a man had beaten her.

While searching for the man the detective felt a hand in the pocket where he had $2 and a subway ticket. He struck out in the dark and knocked a man from the stoop. He says the person who got up from the sidewalk was Samuel Zolton, twenty-five, a chauffeur, of No. 473 East Houston Street.

Zolton enlisted the sympathy of a bystander, who is alleged to have tried to pull him away from the detective. O'Hara said nothing to the man he says was interfering, confident he would trail along to the station, which he did. Then he was arrested. He said he was Harry Rosenblatt, thirty-two, a salesman, of No. 324 East 19th Street.

DARIEN FIREBUG BUSY.

Connecticut Town Has 20th Anniversary Fire Within 30 Days.

DARIEN, Conn., June 7.—The thirtieth anniversary fire within thirty days has Darien bordering on panic. While the authorities are certain a firebug is at work they have been unable to find even any clue to his identity.

Yesterday's fire partially destroyed an unoccupied house owned by Mrs. Maybelle Iyerson. The authorities declare that the building had been sprayed with gasoline.

"—and a rasher of bacon"

"—and waiter—!"
"Yessir."

"Tell the chef to broil a nice rasher of bacon over each of those chops."

Then he sat back in anticipation, for there's something about the flavor of well cured bacon that always touches a spot in a man's taste organs when nothing else can reach it.

Try this little trick the next time you have lamb chops. And try Ferris Bacon, if you enjoy that deep rich curing of the days of your grandfather. Ferris flavor has been famous for nearly half a century.
